Is, Am and Are

Is: used in present tense with third person singular subjects.
Am: used in present tense with first person subject(I)
Are: used in present tense with plural subjects.

Q. Write is, am, or are in the blanks to complete each sentence.

1. Cats _____ climbing trees.

2. Grey _____ doing his work.

3. What _____ goats eating?

4. They_____ going to the cinema.

5. I _____ completing my work on time.

6. Stars _____ shining.

7. The dog _____ sleeping with puppies.